Calendar Girls

By Tim Firth

This feel-good comedy is based on the true story of a group of working-class British housewives who became overnight celebrities by posing for an "alternative" calendar to raise money for a cancer hospital. Follow the adventures of best friends Chris and Annie as they convince their local women's group to bare more than their souls for a good cause. Adapted from the 2003 movie.

Greetings!

By Tom Dudzik

When Andy brings his Jewish atheist fiancé to meet his traditional Catholic family on Christmas Eve, it's a recipe for disaster. But when Andy's intellectually disabled younger brother Mickey unexpectedly spouts the word "Greetings!" the entire family's belief system is turned upside down. Author Tom Dudzik also penned our successful production of Miracle on South Division Street.

And Then There Were None

By Agatha Christie

In this classic Agatha Christie whodunit, ten strangers are summoned to a remote British island. Each guest has a secret and each one is both a suspect and a potential victim. As the weather turns and the group is cut off from the mainland, the guests are systematically murdered, one at a time, in accordance with the lines of a sinister nursery rhyme.

Into The Woods

Book by James Lapine
Music and Lyrics by Stephen Sondheim

This Stephen Sondheim musical intertwines the plots of several Brothers Grimm and Charles Perrault fairy tales, exploring the consequences of the characters' wishes and dreams. When a childless baker and his wife embark on a quest to begin a family, they interact with storybook characters from "Little Red Riding Hood", "Jack and the Beanstalk", "Rapunzel", and "Cinderella", during their journey. Will their wishes come true? And do they really want them to?
